

SHOOT LOCATION

Our expansive property offers a variety of impressive indoor and outdoor vistas, all boasting an authentic Western aesthetic and unparalleled natural beauty.

ANTELOPE TRAILS

Immerse your production in a genuine Western environment, featuring horses, a corral, buck and pole fences, a private arena, and a variety of cowboy gear that can supplement your prop budget, from trailers to saddles to hats. We can also facilitate access to local outfitters with well-trained horses as well for an additional fee.

The expansiveness of our 70-acre ranch offers limitless flexibility for world-building, with a variety of locations that can be styled to feel like completely different properties. Stunning viewpoints are around every corner, from forests to wildflower gardens with burbling creeks to the mighty Snake River and the grand Teton peaks.

Each of our three homes is designed with immaculate attention to detail, capturing luxurious Western style through distinctive design details and thoughtfully curated artwork. Even while indoors, expansive windows reveal the stunning vistas that surround the property, providing an authentic sense of place from every angle.
